The Northern New Jersey GSD club is holding a pre show dinner (following our Fall Specialty on Saturday Oct. 15th) featuring Jim Moses, one of the most influential handler/breeders in the USA today. Jim has been showing German Shepherds for most of his adult life, well over 40 years now. He has handled numerous "great dogs" of our breed including the immortal GV Lance of Fran Jo, Best in Show at Westminster KC in the Garden, Ch Covy Tucker Hill's Manhattan and more recently multi Best in Show winner Dallas (Ch Kismet's Sight for Sore Eyes) and, of course, many other Grand Victors and Grand Victrixs and multi best in show Shepherds. In addition he now has bred a recent Grand Victor Ch Kaleef's Arregon and many other current champions. Following the buffet dinner Jim will lead a round table discussion of the Past, Present and Future of the German Shepherd Breed.
